

Activity summary of CIAS fellow in Budapest

Name (with title):

Dr. Tamás Hoffmann, PhD, senior faculty research fellow

Home institute (name, position, country):

Associate Professor
Faculty of Social Sciences and International Relations
Department of International Relations
Corvinus University of Budapest

Partner(s) in Hungary:

Corvinus Institute for Advanced Studies

Academic Year / Semester: Academic year 2019/20, Fall semester

Duration: 10 months

Sponsor(s): CIAS

Work in progress:

Domestication of International Law in Action – The Hybridization of International Criminal Norms
(Book project)

Connected publications:

‘The Punishment of Negationism in Hungarian Criminal Law – Theory and Practice’ in Patrycja Grzebyk (ed.) Responsibility for Negation of International Crimes. Memory Law – International Crimes – Denial (Warsaw, Publishing House: The Justice Institute, ISBN 978-83-66344-43-3.) (forthcoming in June 2020)

Odpowiedzialność za negowanie zbrodni międzynarodowych. Prawo pamięci – Zbrodnie międzynarodowe - Negowanie, (Instytut Wymiaru Sprawiedliwości, ISBN 978-83-66344-44-0.) (forthcoming in June 2020)

‘The Crime of Genocide in Its (Nearly) Infinite Domestic Variety’ in Marco Odello, Piotr Łubiński (eds.) The Concept of Genocide in International Criminal Law - Developments after Lemkin (Routledge, 2020, SBN 978-03-67858-19-3) (forthcoming in July 2020)

Additional activities (presentations, professional meetings, public lecture etc.):

He presented a paper on 8 October 2019 at ‘The Punishment of Negationism – Memory Law – International Crimes and the Problem of Denial’ conference at the University of Warsaw. The title of the presentation was ‘Punishment of Negationism in Hungarian Criminal Law – Theory and Practice’.

He presented a public lecture on his research project at Corvinus University of Budapest.

Future plans, planned return (if any):

He plans to continue his research project during the spring semester of the academic year 2019/20. He also plans to publish professional paper(s) in related Q2 professional journal(s).