

1. What are cookies?

A cookie is a small file or data packet that is placed in your browser or on your device when you visit a website. Cookies allow the website to recognise visitors on their next visit and improve the user experience while browsing the website.

Cookies can be distinguished by their user, their function or their storage duration.

Some cookies are set by the website operator (internal cookies) and some are set by third parties (external cookies).

In terms of their function, the cookies used on the CORVINUS website are cookies ensuring basic operation (operational cookies).

Based on their storage duration, we distinguish session cookies, which are deleted as soon as the visitor closes the browser, and persistent cookies, which are stored by the visitor's browser until they expire or are deleted.

5. Rights of data subjects

According to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (GDPR), you

(i) may request access to personal data concerning you in the event of any data processing, requesting information about the data processed by the data controllers. The information or a copy of the data processed will be provided free of charge. Additional copies requested by you may be subject to a reasonable charge based on the administrative cost,

(ii) in the case of any processing, you may request the rectification, erasure or restriction of the processing of personal data concerning you and, where the conditions are met, exercise the right to data portability and object to the data processing.

6. Legal remedies

The Data Subject may at any time contact the Data Protection Officer of the Data Controller (Dr Balázs LOCSMÁNDI, e-mail: adatvedelem@uni-corvinus.hu) regarding the processing of his/her personal data.

The Data Subject may also contact the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information in the event of a complaint regarding the processing of his/her personal data (postal address: 1363 Budapest, Pf. 9., address: 1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa utca 9-11., telephone: +36 (1) 391-1400; fax: +36 (1) 391-1410; e-mail: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu; website: www.naih.hu).

The Data Subject may take the Data Controller to court in the event of a breach of his/her rights. The court shall hear the case as a matter of urgency. The Data Controller must prove that the data processing is in compliance with the law. The regional court, or the Budapest-Capital Regional Court in the capital city, has jurisdiction to hear the case. Proceedings may also be brought before the regional court of the place of residence or place of stay of the Data Subject.
