

TOPIC AND ADVISOR SELECTION IN NEPTUN STUDY SYSTEM

Manual for Students

According to the curriculum, students of the Communication and Media Studies BA program choose their thesis topic in the 5th semester, and students of the Communication and Media Studies MA program choose their thesis topic in the 3rd semester. However, those who plan to submit their theses later (in the next fall semester or even later) can choose their thesis topic in the 6th semester (BA program) and 4th semester (MA program). (The thesis topic can be chosen only once during the course of the program.)

The topic selection will happen as follows:

- Topics with supervisors are announced in Neptun Study System so you can browse and register there.
- Students must choose one topic with a supervisor (after prior consultation with the chosen supervisor)
- The student is required to give the working title and fill in the field of abstract/topic plan (without it, the application cannot be saved).
- After the applications are closed, the programme manager will decide on the applications received.
- The decision will be set and visible in Neptun Study System.
- Deadlines:
