REGULATION ON DEMONSTRATORS

Preamble

Pursuant to Point (re) of Subparagraph (r) of Paragraph (2) of Section 7 of the Organisational and Operational Procedures, the Senate of the Corvinus University of Budapest (hereinafter: University) has defined the operational framework of the demonstrator system as follows.

Purpose of regulation

1. §

- (1) The aim of the demonstrator system is to provide a framework for capable and deserving students to get involved in the teaching and research activities of the institutes and centres, research centres and in other activities serving the strategic goals of the University, thus promoting the education of future generations to pursue doctoral studies and careers in lecturing, scientific research.
- (2) Demonstrator activity helps to increase students' professional commitment, to cultivate their profession to a higher than average standard, and to attract them to university lecturing and scientific work.
- (3) The Regulation on Demonstrators (hereinafter referred to as Regulation) is intended to provide a framework for achieving the goals set out in (1)-(2) within the material scope of the Regulation.

Scope of the regulation

2. §

- (1) The scope of the Regulation covers all the students studying at the University in bachelor, two-cycle and single-cycle master programmes.
- (2) The personal scope of the Regulation covers all the organisational units that employ or intend to employ demonstrators, the lecturers and researchers of these organisational units, the persons involved in the application process as proposers, opinion-givers and decision-makers, and the students employed as demonstrators.
- (3) The material scope of the Regulation covers the rules governing the mandate of the demonstrator – including the procedures for application and selection –, the scope of demonstrator duties, the demonstrator's duties, obligations, responsibilities and rights, the demonstrator's remuneration and the cases in which the demonstratorship is terminated.

Related documents

3. §

- (1) The following legislation and regulatory documents pertain to the Regulation, which shall be applied in conjunction with such legislation and internal regulatory documents:
 - a) Act CCIV of 2011 on National Higher Education,
 - b) Act I of 2012 on the Labour Code,

REGULATION ON DEMONSTRATORS

- c) Organisational and Operational Procedures,
- d) Resolution No. 2/2021 (25 January) of the Presidential Committee on the employment of students and doctoral students,
- e) Resolution No. 2/2022 of the Presidential Committee on the rules of concluding external lecturers' engagement contracts and student contracts for teaching activities,
- f) where necessary, the General Vice-Rector's Instruction containing the operational rules.

The engagement shall be subject to:

Application criteria, grounds for exclusion

4. §

- (1) Demonstratorship may be obtained through responding to a call for applications.
- (2) Students taking part in a bachelor programme, a two-cycle or single cycle master programme may submit an application if they meet the conditions set out in paragraph (3).
- (3) Applications are open to Corvinus students:
 - a) who hold a bachelor diploma (or equivalent) or have completed at least two semesters and at least 60 (sixty) credits, and
 - b) have an academic scholarship average of 4.00 or higher in the last active semester prior to the application,
 - c) who have achieved at least a good (4) grade in the subject for which they wish to provide education support.
 - d) who have finally not been found guilty of a disciplinary offence or ethical abuse by a higher education institution in the three years preceding the submission.
- (4) When evaluating the applications, the following shall be considered an advantage and thus shall be taken into account during ranking:
 - a) achievement of excellent results in the chosen field (e.g. study competition, participation in research, outstanding class work, recommendation by a future patron teacher),
 - b) exemplary community work.
- (5) Having an active student status during the semester of application is not a prerequisite for submitting and winning the application, but the demonstratorship cannot be awarded and/or performed, thus eligibility is automatically lost by students who suspend their student status at the University during the semester concerned by the application.
- (6) Taking courses at another higher education institution in the semester of submission is not an obstacle to submitting and winning the application, but the demonstratorship cannot be awarded and/or performed, thus eligibility is automatically lost by students who spend the semester concerned at another higher education institution during the semester concerned by the application.
