

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS – TOPICS, LEVEL B2

1. The role of international diplomacy, international organisations and institutions

- characteristics of relations between states, role and types of diplomacy
- tasks and characteristics of the most important international organisations
- intergovernmental and non-governmental international organisations

2. The European Union

- structure of the institutions, their powers
- the process of European integration and its future
- migration within the EU

3. The leading world powers

- the economic and political role of the USA in the world
- Russia's role in the world
- China's role in the world

4. Emerging and developing countries

- their role and impact in international politics
- their relationship with the developed world
- their specific problems (e.g. poverty, underdevelopment, etc.)

5. International aspects of environmental protection

- common environmental problems of the world
- environmental conventions
- environmental protection programmes

6. Population and migration

- International demography and migration
- legal and illegal migration
- the situation in host countries

7. Human rights, minority rights

- the current situation of human rights
- rights and protection of minorities
- rights of refugees and asylum seekers

8. International conflicts, crisis areas, terrorism, security and defence policy,

- international factors of new tensions, crises
- peacekeeping, peaceful conflict resolution
- conflicts of ethnic and religious origin

9. International and intercultural communication

- the role of the media in politics and diplomacy
- the role of the media in terrorism
- globalisation and regulation of the media

10. International relations between the target language country(ies) and Hungary

- relations between Hungary and the target language country(ies)
- the evolution of the country's international relations over the last 25 years
- current trends and current issues in the country(ies)'s international relations