

3rd International PhD Conference of the Doctoral School of IR and Political Science of CUB 27th May 2021 Environmental, social and economic sustainability in the light of the (geo)political challenges of our age
Agenda and session allocation
9:50-10:00: Welcome speech Dr. Géza Salamin, Head of the Institute of International, Political and Regional Studies, CUB
10:00-12:00: Parallel morning sessions
Session 1: Social inequalities and sustainability (I) Chair: Dr. Zoltán KELEMEN
AIT EL CAID, Hamid: Bottom-Up Protests in Morocco, Tunisia and Algeria: A Struggle Against “Inherited” Socio-spatial Inequalities
BARCZIKAY Tamás: Determinants of the effectiveness of governance in service delivery in Addis Ababa City Administration
BORBÉLY Mátyás: The social positions of Hungarian minorities in the neighbouring countries of Hungary in a territorial context
CZIRJÁK Ráchel: Participatory development: a way of sustainable slum upgrading
PERCZE László: Complex scenarios of the Szeklerland based on the vision of the Szekler's elite: the future ideas of Szeklerland's agrarian elite
SIPOS Xénia: Gender equality as a sustainable development goal in the Maghreb? Morocco, Tunisia and Algeria compared
Session 2: Geopolitics and sustainability Chair: Dr. Viktor ESZTERHAI
ALTAMIMI, Ahmad: Security via bodies: Biometrics of Syrian Refugees vis a vis EU global strategy
BARKAT, Ayoub – BEHNAM, Ata – PÉNZES János: Opportunities and challenges. Renewable energy and geopolitics in Iran
HNIN, Mya Thida: Myanmar's counterbalancing strategies to China
KIRILOVA, Neli: Perception of power in the foreign policy of the EU, Russia and Turkey and its relation to international conflicts and security crises in the Black Sea region
URAIMOV, Marat: Untold side of the China's foreign aid and foreign investment: the case of Central Asia.
ZHAO, Wei: An Empirical Analysis On China – CEE Trade Potential: The Role Of Economic Scale, Cultural and Institutional Distance — Based On Gravity Model
ZOLTAI Alexandra: Geopolitics and sustainability: China in the Arctic
Session 3: The effects of global and European integration on sustainable development (I) Chair: Dr. Attila KOROMPAI
AYALA CASTIBLANCO, Lizeth Vanessa: Addressing sustainable development in interregional forums: An analysis of the summits between the European Union and Latin America

BÁLÓ András: The Goose that Laid the Golden Eggs? Economic Repercussions of Cohesion Policy: The Case of Hungary

BARTALOS Éva: EU's net-zero economy in line with transformation of oil and gas companies by 2050?

GARAI Nikolett: The European Climate Club: How can the European Green Deal help to further climate cooperation on an international level?

ISMAYILZADA, Tofiq: Influence of the European Union Partnership Agreement 2014 – 2020 to the Diminishing of Social Inequality in Poland

Session 4:

Sustainability in political thought

Chair: Dr. Réka VÁRNAGY

BÁNKI András: Political groups in the European Parliament 2009-2019

BALOGH Lilla: Does techno-optimism hinder sustainable transformation?

COSSU, Elena: Macroeconomics, Policies and Hungary: how an illiberal democratic government characterized by populist rhetoric deals with a crisis and economic choices

MUGAMBI, Paul: Redefining the sovereign: Disaggregating the myth of representative democracy using Kenya's case study

UJLAKI Anna: Vulnerability and Sustainability in Political Thought

Session 5:

Analysing sustainability issues in regional/national economic dimension (I)

Chair: Dr. István BENCZES

BORGES-AGUIAR, Giovanna: The determinants of Brazil's agricultural exports and the effect of an environmental regulation: A gravity approach

CSENGER Ádám: Sustainability in Australia

DOROGI Zoltán: Creative ways in the capitals of the Visegrad countries

EL-MEOUCH, Nedim Márton: Spatial analysis of the connection between lending and branch location and closures in Hungary

FARKAS Attila: Solar energy investments and local development - a literature review and empirical notes on the effects of ownership from Hungary

LI Tianyi: The Strategies for the Transformation of Tourism Mode – Under the Tourism Deglobalization

Session 6:

The effects of global and European integration on sustainable development and fight against climate change (II)

Chair: Dr. Anna SZÉCHY

KISS Adrienn: Smart village in theory and practice

KISS Gábor Ferenc: The sustainability aspects of EU funding

KOVÁCS Antal Ferenc: Welfare and Wellbeing: the wealth approach to sustainability

TÓTH Bálint László: Railway cooperation among V4 states – The role of spillovers in the broadening of integration areas between Visegrad Four states

LUNCH BREAK

12:30-14:30: Parallel afternoon sessions

Session 7:
The impact of climate change on international relations

Chair: Dr. Sándor Gyula NAGY

DOGAN, Hakki: The Path to The Green Economy: The Role of Financial Institutions

KOVÁCS Eszter: Climate Change and Modern Free Trade Agreements Hand in Hand?

MUGAMBI, Paul: Altering the future: The impact of climate change on international political relations landscape

TAKÁCSNÉ TÓTH Borbála: The future of natural gas in the Danube Region

VERESS Hilda: The EU-ACP-Pacific partnership

Session 8:
Natural resources and sustainability (I)

Chair: Dr. Attila KOROMPAI

GASHAW Gismu Chakilu: The impact of Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam (GERD) in the future sustainable water resource management, and regional and geo-political cooperation of Ethiopia, Sudan and Egypt

LENTI Attila: The balance between development and conservation in the Amazon basin

LINAN SEGURA, Gabriela: The Political Economy of Energy Transition in Mexico

MAREY, Heba: The benefits of Applying Sustainable Construction Waste Management in Egypt

Session 9:
Social inequalities and sustainability (II)

Chair: Dr. Eszter KIRS

DOMBI Mihály – KARCAGI-KOVÁTS Andrea – ALDEBEI Faisal Mohammad Fahid – HARAZIN Piroska: Co-benefits of policies focusing on economic inequality and material stock accumulation

ESSŐSY Ákos: The future of labour – Receptiveness to flexible employment at Hungarian IEs

JAHANLI, Sabina: Universal Basic Income Debate

MAWLOOD, Zainaddin: The Future of Minorities in Post-ISIS Iraq

TEVELI-HORVÁTH Dorottya: Facebook communication of Hungarian midsize municipalities

14:30-16:30: Parallel afternoon sessions (II)

Session 10:
Analysing sustainability issues in regional/national economic dimension (II)

Chair: Dr. Judit RICZ

MA, Zibo: Discussion on EU's likelihood of achieving full harmonization in corporate direct taxation while being a fiscal disunion

MIKLÓS Gábor: Losing administration fee

NAGY Szabolcs: The economic potential of the Slovakian and Hungarian city-regions

PAUL, Sebastian: Interreg Danube Transnational Programme "TalentMagnet": The Impact of Out-Migration on Small- and Medium-sized Cities in the Danube Region

TETLÁK Örs: Regionalism in Sub-Saharan Africa

VARGA Virág: Polycentric development as a tool for enhancing competitiveness: the prospects of the hierarchical centre-system of the Budapest metropolitan region

Session 11:

Natural resources and sustainability (II)

Chair: Dr. Sándor KEREKES

MEZEI Attila: The Impact of Oil on Foreign Policy in Different Types of Economies

SHEBL, Ali: Surface Water Sustainability by Runoff Optimal Exploitation and Flash Flood Risk Assessment

WICAKSONO, Agung: The Performance of State Auxiliary Organs in Solving Environmental Problems: Peatland Restoration Agency in Indonesia

Session 12:

Social inequalities and sustainability (III)

Chair: Dr. Péter MARTON

SÁRVÁRI Katarina: The role of successful creative hubs in fostering sustainable development

SODIP, Roy: Hosting refugee and achieving sustainable development goals (SDGs): a case study on the Rohingya refugee crisis in Bangladesh

SZEMEREYNÉ PATAKI Klaudia: Innovative employment model – senior knowledge management program

TANKOVSKY Oleg: How sustainable are the minority policies in Ukraine? Does that has an affect on the declining number of Hungarian minorities in Transcarpathia?