TBS summer school was my first summer school. I've ever attended and I learnt so much from it such as working with people from a multilateral environment and communicating with others and make friends. I also learnt to speak a basic Thai from Thai teachers. In addition, the course was more standardised and the lecturers were very professional and helpful. It was a really great opportunity for me to get out of my comfort zone and experience the world.

Mr. Tran Ha Khoa
Hanoi, Vietnam

The summer school helped me gain more confidence, my presentation skills increased as well as critical-thinking skills and how to work as a group. The professors were so friendly and they were always there whenever I need advice. I made lots of friends and they also showed me around Bangkok too. My recommendation is just enjoy the system. The summer school was unforgettable.

I would seriously recommend Thammasat to any student looking to spend time in a new country. The programme enables you to explore the country while still receiving good results. The students at the business school are extremely outgoing, so there is always plenty to do outside of class. Thank you for the amazing experience.
