Dr. Richard Werner

Research Professor
Rektori szervezet / Pénzügy Intézet / Makropénzügyek
Year of birth: 1967

Qualifications, scientific degrees

Higher education qualifications

- 2020 - 2022
  University of Winchester, Higher Education Studies (MSc/MA)
- 1986 - 1989
  London School of Economics, Economics (BSc/BA)

Scientific degrees and awards

- 2007, PhD
  University of Oxford

Career

Workplaces

- 2006 - 2007
  Bear Stearns Asset Management Ltd., London, Founder and manager: Bear Stearns Global Alpha Fund; Senior Managing Director, Senior Portfolio Manager
- 1993 - 1998
  Jardine Fleming Securities (Asia) Ltd., Tokyo Branch, Chief Economist, Director of Research

Public activities in the university (memberships in university bodies)

- 2008 - 2014
  Executive Board Member, Southampton Business School, University of Southampton

Membership in board of supervision and directors

- 2015 - 2018
  GEFCO SA (Multimodal logistics company), Paris, France, Supervisory Board Director

Important study tours, delegacies

- 2020, 3 years
  Fudan University, Shanghai, China

Awards, titles, honors

- 2020, Fellow
  Royal Society for the encouragement of Arts, Manufactures & Commerce

Language skills

	Speaking	Writing	Reading	Media

Language				appearance
Japanese	Advanced	Advanced	Advanced	Yes
German	Native	Native	Native	Yes
English	Native	Native	Native	Yes

Research, professional activity

Major taught courses or fields of education:

Economics, Monetary Economics, , Development Economics, Financial Economics, Banking, Central Banking, Finance, International Economics, International Finance, International Banking

Field of science and discipline:

economics

Current fields of research:

Banking and Economic Development

Previous fields of research:

Can banks create money out of nothing?, Quantitative Easing, Political Economy, Central Banking

Major research projects

- 1995 - 2025, Invented a new monetary policy called Quantitative Easing
  Form of participation: leader of the research team
  Moneylender: various organisations, including the Association for Research on Banking and the Economy (ARBE), UK
  Further info about research: Quantitative Easing was first proposed by Professor Richard Werner in 1995. It has been implemented by many central banks, including the Federal Reserve, the Bank of England, the ECB, the Bank of Japan, and many others, over several decades.

Membership in scientific or professional bodies/organizations

- 2020 - 2026, Research Fellow, member
  CES-ifo Research Network, international

Board memberships and positions

- 2022 - 2026, Associate Editor, president or member of the editorial board

Expert consultancy activities

- 2024 - 2025
  National Research, Development and Innovation Office, Government of Hungary, Member of the Economics and Politics Evaluation Board

Publications

- Trade-off theory vs. the pecking order hypothesis: Japanese evidence on capital structure under financial constraints.

Contacts

Location at the university

- Building: E
  Room number: 255
  Extension:
  Main line:
  Fax:
  Internal fax:

E-mail address: richard.werner@uni-corvinus.hu
Postal address: Fövam ter 8, Budapest
Personal webpage: www.professorwerner.org
Additional contact details: +36203978428

Other professional profiles

LinkedIn: https://www.linkedin.com/in/richard-a-werner-5359ba9/

Scholar: https://scholar.google.com/citations?user=bdoFt3QAAAAJ&hl=en