

Name(s) of undergraduate program(s)	BA in Communication and Media Science
Type of the exam	Oral
Name of the exam	admission interview (for international applicants)
Duration of the exam	10 minutes
Method of the exam	online (Skype)
Short description of the exam	The purpose of the interview is to measure applicants' verbal competences, as well as to learn about their motivation for joining a program. Interviews are evaluated, among others, on the basis of how successful applicants are in communicating their ideas, what career plans they have in mind or how they think they can benefit from the Bachelor's program in order to meet their future goals.
Materials that can be used during the exam	any
Recommended reading materials	none
Topics	none
Sample questions	none