1. Annex No.

Evaluation criteria1. Eligibility criteria for students who have been awarded a non-bilateral (current Erasmus+) place:

The resources currently available are allocated according to the following principles:

- 1.1. Students travelling to partners in current Erasmus+ partner countries have priority over students travelling to bilateral partners.
- 1.2. Students participating in the CEMS programme have priority over other students, up to the amount available.
- 1.3. CEMS students are followed by students who have been awarded a place on a Double Degree programme and DSG programmes, in order of their starting number of places on the Abroad part-time programme, subject to the amount available.
- 1.4. The remaining amount will be awarded to students on the basis of their score in the main part of the training competition (this competition), up to the amount available. In case of equal scores, the student with the highest cumulative grade point average will be awarded the grant. In case of withdrawal, the next student in order of priority will be awarded the grant.

2. For visits to countries under a bilateral agreement (outside the EU), the University may award grants to the successful applicants, subject to the following order of priority, up to the available funding (the successful applicants will receive the maximum basic grant under the Erasmus rules, which will be awarded from the programme based on the length of mobility and the distance travelled.)

The funds available at any given time will be distributed among the students who have been awarded a place in this call and have applied for funding, as follows:

2.1. Students travelling to the following partner universities:

- Bentley University (USA)
- University of Michigan- Ross Business School (USA)

2.2. Students participating in the CEMS programme - in order of the students' scores in the study abroad competition, up to a maximum of the first 10 students applying for a bilateral place, subject to the amount available. In the case of a tie, the average of the students' undergraduate degrees will determine the order.

2.3. Participants in the DD programme - taking into account the students' cumulative average academic results (minimum 4,00) up to the amount available.

2.4. Support awarded on an individual consideration basis.

2.5. Great Britain - students who apply in this call and who have a cumulative grade point average of at least 4.50 will be supported, up to the amount available.

2.6. The remaining amount will be awarded to students on the basis of their score in this call, up to the amount available. In the event of equal scores, the student with the highest cumulative grade point average will be awarded the grant.

2.7. In the event of withdrawal, the next student with a place in this call will be awarded the grant.
