

The credit recognition procedure MUST BE COMPLETED for Applicants who have obtained a bachelor degree and professional qualification in a FOREIGN HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTION

A	B	C	D1	E1	E2	F
Study field	Name of the masters programme	You DON'T NEED a credit recognition procedure, if you have a bachelor degree from Hungary from one of these programmes (bachelor programmes that can be counted with FULL CREDIT)	You MUST do the credit recognition procedure	Credits required for entry	Minimum credits required for entry	Subject areas required for entry to the Master's programme
Economics	ADVANCED SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Business Administration and Management •Business Informatics •Commerce and Marketing •International Business Economics •Data Science in Business 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	20 ECTS credits	min. 3 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 20 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT) (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Economics Foundation (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theories, Business Modelling, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Public Economics) (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Social Sciences Foundation (e.g. EU Studies, General and Business Law, Economic History, Sociology, Psychology) (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Business and Professional Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Business Law, Marketing, Management and Leadership, Decision Making Skills and Methodology, Business Ethics, Strategic Planning, Finance, Accounting, Controlling) (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Logistics and Supply Chain Management (e.g. Management of Processes and Operations, Value-added Process in Operations Management, Logistics, Distribution, Procurement, Production Management, Service Management, Supply Chain Management) minimum 3 ECTS credits (cannot be acquired through catch up courses). For admission to the Master's programme, the applicant must have 3 ECTS credits of the listed Logistics and Supply Chain Management subjects from his/her previous studies. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	AGILE ENTREPRENEURSHIP	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Applied Economics •Human Resources •Business Administration and Management •Business Informatics •Agrobusiness and Rural Development Engineering •Commerce and Marketing •International Business Economics •Finance and Accounting •Tourism and Catering •Data Science in Business 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	24 ECTS credits	min. 18 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 24 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT), Economics Foundation (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theories, Business Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Public Economics), minimum 6 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Management and Leadership, Management, Corporate Finance, Human Resources Management, Marketing, Business Law, Decision Making Skills and Methodology, Business Ethics, Strategic Planning, Finance, Accounting, Controlling) minimum 12 ECTS credits (maximum 6 ECTS credits can be acquired through catch up courses), For admission to the Master's programme, the applicant must have 18 ECTS credits of the listed subjects from his/her previous studies and the minimum requirements of at least one of the two areas' (Methodology or Business Foundation) need to be fulfilled. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Information technology	BUSINESS INFORMATICS	Business Informatics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	70 ECTS credits	min. 40 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 70 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Natural Sciences (e.g. Analysis, Probability Theory, Statistics, Operations Research, Mathematics, Informatics) 10 ECTS credits, - Business and Human Resource Management (e.g. Economics, Business Economics, Finance, Law, EU Studies, Management, Management and Decision Making) 20 ECTS credits, - Informatics (e.g. IT Architectures, Operational Systems, IT Networks, Programming Theory, Programming Languages, Programme Design, Database Handling, IR Architectures (Development, Management), Quality Assurance, Integrated Development Tools, Development Support, IT Audit, Integrated Business Management Systems, Special Applications) 40 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 40 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
				60 ECTS credits	[1]	In case of Computer Science Operational Engineering bachelor degree: To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 60 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The 60 credits must be acquired within 2 (active) semesters during your MSc studies. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Natural Sciences Foundation (e.g. Analysis, Statistics, Operations Research) 10 ECTS credits, - Business and Human Resource Management (e.g. Economics, Finance, Accounting, Controlling) 20 ECTS credits, - Informatics (e.g. Computer Architectures, Databases, Business Intelligence, Corporate Management Systems, Quality Assurance, IT Audit, System Development) 30 ECTS credits.
Economics	CLIMATE POLICY AND REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Sustainable and Circular Economy-Based Tourism •Agrobusiness and Rural Development Engineering •Business Administration and Management •Communication and Media Science •International Business Economics •International Public Service Management •International Relations •Finance and Accounting •Tourism and Catering 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	20 ECTS credits	min. 15 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 20 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology, 5 ECTS credits, - Economics Foundation, 5 ECTS credits, - Social Sciences Foundation, 5 ECTS credits, - Programme Specific Foundation (e.g. Knowledge of Environmental and Sustainability Issues, Knowledge of Policies, Knowledge of International and National Institutions), 5 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 15 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Social sciences	COMMUNICATION AND MEDIA STUDIES	Communication and Media Science	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	30 ECTS credits	min. 30 ECTS credits	To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 30 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. Business and Management, Network Communication, Human Resources, Cultural Anthropology, Science of Culture, Communication, Marketing, Media Theory, Media Culture, Media Literacy, Work Psychology, Foundations of Interculture, Arts and Arts Communication, Linguistics, International Communication, Special Media Literacy, Sociology, Social Psychology, PR.
Economics	DESIGN, BUSINESS, SOCIETY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Applied Economics •Human Resources •Business Administration and Management •Business Informatics •Agrobusiness and Rural Development Engineering •Commerce and Marketing •International Business Economics •Finance and Accounting •Tourism and Catering •Data Science in Business 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	24 ECTS credits	min. 18 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 24 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT), Economics Foundation (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theories, Business Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Public Economics), minimum 6 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Business Law, Marketing, Management and Leadership, Decision Making Skills and Methodology, Business Ethics, Strategic Planning, Finance, Accounting, Controlling) minimum 12 ECTS credits (maximum 6 ECTS credits can be acquired through catch up courses), For admission to the Master's programme, the applicant must have 18 ECTS credits of the listed subjects from his/her previous studies and the minimum requirements of at least one of the two areas' (Methodology or Business Foundation) need to be fulfilled. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	DIGITAL INNOVATION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Human Resources •Business Administration and Management •Business Informatics •Agrobusiness and Rural Development Engineering •Commerce and Marketing •International Business Economics •Finance and Accounting •Tourism and Catering •Data Science in Business 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	24 ECTS credits	min. 18 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 24 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT), Economics Foundation (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theories, Business Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Public Economics), minimum 6 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Management and Leadership, Management, Corporate Finance, Human Resources Management, Marketing, Business Law, Decision Making Skills and Methodology, Business Ethics, Strategic Planning, Finance, Accounting, Controlling) minimum 12 ECTS credits (maximum 6 ECTS credits can be acquired through catch up courses), - Informatics, minimum 3 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses). For admission to the Master's programme, the applicant must have 18 ECTS credits of the listed subjects from his/her previous studies and the minimum requirements of at least two of the three areas' (Methodology or Business Foundation or Informatics) need to be fulfilled. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	ECONOMIC ANALYSIS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Applied Economics •Economic and Financial Mathematical Analysis 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	80 ECTS credits	min. 50 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 80 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Economics, Business and Social Sciences (50 ECTS) (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Economics, Business) 50 ECTS credits, - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, Econometrics, Decision Making Skills, IT) 30 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 50 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Social sciences	ECONOMIC BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Human Resources •Business Administration and Management •Commerce and Marketing •International Business Economics •Finance and Accounting •Tourism and Catering 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	60 ECTS credits	min. 48 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 60 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Economics and Business Foundation (Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theories, Business Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Public Economics, Business Economics, Business Law, Marketing, Finance, Accounting, Decision Making Skills and Methodology, Business Ethics, Business Communication, Taxation, Business Finance, Value-added Process in Operations Management, Management and Leadership, Business Planning, Business Management, Strategic Planning, Controlling, Human Resource Management, Leadership Skills Development, IT Systems) 30 ECTS credits, - Social Sciences Foundation and Research Methods (Sociology, Psychology, Social Psychology, Organization Psychology, History of Society, Cultural Anthropology, EU Studies, Public Policy Skills, Economic History, Social Science Research Methods, Market Research and Survey Studies) 15 ECTS credits, - Methodology (Mathematics, Statistics, Data Analysis, Probability Theory, Mathematical Statistics, Mathematical Economics, Computer Data Analysis, IT Skills) 15 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 48 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	FINANCE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Business Administration and Management •Finance and Accounting 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	60 ECTS credits	min. 30 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 60 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT) 15 ECTS credits, - Economics Foundation (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theories, Business Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Public Economics, World and European Economics, Public Policy) 10 ECTS credits, - Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Accounting, Controlling, Human Resource Management, Business Law, Marketing, Management and Leadership, Management of Value Creation Processes, Decision Making Skills and Methodology, Business Ethics, Strategic Planning, Business Communication) 10 ECTS credits, - Social Sciences Foundation (e.g. EU Studies, General and Economic Law, Economic History, Sociology, Psychology, Philosophy) 10 ECTS credits, - Professional skills (e.g. Finance, Finance and Capital Markets, Banking, Financial Policy, Taxation, Business Finance, Business Valuation) 15 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 30 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT POLICY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Applied Economics •Philosophy, Politics, Economy •Business Administration and Management •Communication and Media Science •International Business Economics •International Public Service Management •International Relations •Finance and Accounting 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	20 ECTS credits	min. 15 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 20 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology, 5 ECTS credits, - Economics Foundation, 5 ECTS credits, - Social Sciences Foundation, 5 ECTS credits, - Programme Specific Foundation (e.g. Public Policy, Global Economics, Development Economics, Development Policy, International and National Institutions, Public Policy, Specialized Policy, Public Law, Social Policy), 5 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 15 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.

The credit recognition procedure MUST BE COMPLETED for Applicants who have obtained a bachelor degree and professional qualification in a FOREIGN HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTION

A	B	C	D1	E1	E2	F
Study field	Name of the masters programme	You DON'T NEED a credit recognition procedure, if you have a bachelor degree from Hungary from one of these programmes <small>(bachelor programmes that can be counted with FULL CREDIT)</small>	You MUST do the credit recognition procedure	Credits required for entry	Minimum credits required for entry	Subject areas required for entry to the Master's programme
Economics	HEALTH ECONOMIC EVALUATION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Applied Economics • Health Care Management • Philosophy, Politics, Economy • Business Administration and Management • Data Science in Business • Sociology 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	20 ECTS credits	min. 15 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 20 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology, 5 ECTS credits, - Economics Foundation, 5 ECTS credits, - Social Sciences Foundation, 5 ECTS credits, - Programme Specific Foundation (e.g. Healthcare Systems, Health Economics, Health Insurance, Health Policy, Healthcare Institution Management, Public Health and Healthcare Financing), 5 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 15 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	INNOVATION AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Applied Economics •Human Resources •Business Administration and Management •Business Informatics •Agrobusiness and Rural Development Engineering •Commerce and Marketing •International Business Economics •Finance and Accounting •Tourism and Catering •Data Science in Business 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	12 ECTS credits	min. 3 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 12 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Economics (e.g. Micro- and Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theory, Economic Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Community Economics), minimum 3 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Business Studies (e.g. Business Economics, Management and Organisation, Management, Corporate Finance, Human Resource Management, Marketing), minimum 6 ECTS credits (3 ECTS credits can be acquired through catch up courses), - Accounting minimum 3 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses). To be admitted to the Master's programme, applicants must have 3 ECTS credits in Business Studies from their previous studies. In the Master's programme, the missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Social sciences	INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY MANAGEMENT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Applied Economics •Human Resources •Business Administration and Management •Business Informatics •Agrobusiness and Rural Development Engineering •Commerce and Marketing •International Business Economics •Finance and Accounting •Tourism and Catering •Data Science in Business 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	12 ECTS credits	min. 6 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 12 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT), Economics Foundation (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theories, Business Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Public Economics), minimum 6 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Business Law, Marketing, Management and Leadership, Decision Making Skills and Methodology, Business Ethics, Strategic Planning, Finance, Accounting, Controlling) minimum 6 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Social Sciences Foundation (Sociology, Psychology, Communication) minimum 6 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses). For admission to the Master's programme, the applicant must have 6 ECTS credits of the listed subjects from his/her previous studies. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	INTERNATIONAL ACCOUNTING AND AUDITING	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Business Administration and Management •Finance and Accounting 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	48 ECTS credits	min. 22 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 48 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT) minimum 6 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Theoretical Economics and/or Social Sciences Foundation (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Regional Economics, History of Economics, Sociology, Psychology, Communications) minimum 6 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Professional Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Corporate Finance, Management and Leadership, Human Resources) minimum 6 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Professional Accounting Foundation (e.g. Financial Accounting, Management Accounting, Auditing, Controlling) minimum 12 ECTS credits (8 ECTS credits can be acquired through catch up courses). To be admitted to the Master's programme, applicants must have at least 22 ECTS credits in the above fields, based on their previous studies. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	INTERNATIONAL ECONOMY AND BUSINESS	International Business Economics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	20 ECTS credits	min. 10 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 20 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Economics and Methodology Foundation (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT, Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Regional Economics, Economic History) 10 ECTS credits, - Social Sciences Foundation (Sociology, Psychology, Communication) 5 ECTS credits, - Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Corporate Finance, Accounting, Management and Leadership, Human Resource Management) 5 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 10 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	INTERNATIONAL MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •bachelor programmes from the economics study field •Engineering Management •Rural Development Engineering •Business Informatics •Health Care Management 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	24 ECTS credits	min. 12 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 24 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT) 9 ECTS credits; - Economics (e.g. Micro- and Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theory, Economic Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Community Economics, World and European Economics, Public Policy) 3 ECTS credits; - Business Studies (e.g. Corporate Economics, Finance, Economic Law, Decision Theory and Methodology, Business Ethics, Business Communication) 6 ECTS credits. - Social Sciences (e.g. European Union, General and Economic Law, Economic History, Sociology, Philosophy, Psychology) 3 ECTS credits; - Professional Knowledge (e.g. Organisational Behaviour, Accounting) 3 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, applicants must have at least 12 ECTS credits in the above fields, based on their previous studies. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Social sciences	INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •International Relations •International Public Service Management 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	60 ECTS credits	min. 30 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 60 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Social Sciences Foundation (e.g. Sociology, Psychology, Philosophy, Anthropology), - Legal and Managerial Foundation (e.g. Public and Private Law, Constitutional Skills, Public Administration, Public Policy, Business Law), - Economics Foundation (e.g. Economics, Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Business Economics, Finance, International Economics), - Political Sciences (e.g. Political Thinking, Political History, International Studies), - History, Culture and Linguistics (e.g. Economic, Social and Cultural History, Linguistics, Philology). To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 30 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	INTERNATIONAL SPORT BUSINESS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Applied Economics •Human Resources •Business Administration and Management •Business Informatics •Commerce and Marketing •International Business Economics •Finance and Accounting •Tourism and Catering •Data Science in Business 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	30 ECTS credits	min. 24 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 30 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT), and - Economics Foundation (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theories, Business Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Public Economics), and - Social Sciences Foundation (e.g. EU Studies, General and Business Law, Economic History, Sociology, Psychology). A total of 15 ECTS credits from the above three areas combined (cannot be acquired through catch up courses), <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Business Law, Marketing, Management and Leadership, Decision Making Skills and Methodology, Business Ethics, Strategic Planning, Finance, Accounting, Controlling) 15 ECTS credits (maximum 6 ECTS credits can be acquired through catch up courses), For admission to the Master's programme, the applicant must have 24 ECTS credits of the listed subjects from his/her previous studies. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	MANAGEMENT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Applied Economics •Human Resources •Business Administration and Management •Business Informatics •Agrobusiness and Rural Development Engineering •Commerce and Marketing •International Business Economics •Finance and Accounting •Tourism and Catering •Data Science in Business 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	12 ECTS credits	min. 3 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 12 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Economics (e.g. Micro- and Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theory, Economic Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Community Economics), 3 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses) - Business Studies (e.g. Business Economics, Management and Organisation, Management, Corporate Finance, Human Resource Management, Marketing) 6 ECTS credits (3 ECTS credits can be acquired through catch up courses), - Accounting 3 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses). For admission to the Master's programme, the applicant must have 3 ECTS credits of the listed Business Studies subjects from his/her previous studies. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP	Business Administration and Management	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	60 ECTS credits	min. 30 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 60 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT) 15 ECTS credits, - Economics Foundation (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theories, Economic Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Public Economics) 10 ECTS credits, - Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Business Law, Taxation, Marketing, Business Communication, Finance, Accounting, Decision Theory, Business Ethics) 15 ECTS credits, - Social Sciences Foundation (e.g. EU Studies, Public Policy, Economic History, Philosophy, Sociology, Philosophy) 10 ECTS credits, - Professional Skills (e.g. Management of Value Creating Processes, Management and Leadership, Business Management, Business Planning, Strategy Planning, Controlling, Information Systems, Human Resource Management, Leadership Skills) 10 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 30 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	MARKETING	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Commerce and Marketing •Business Administration and Management •International Business Economics •Finance and Accounting •Engineering Management 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	5 ECTS credits	min. 5 ECTS credits	To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 5 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT), - Economics Foundation (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Regional Economics, Economic History), - Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Business Finance, Marketing, Accounting, Management and Leadership, Human Resource Management).
Economics	MARKETING STRATEGY AND INNOVATION	Commerce and Marketing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution •you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C 	48 ECTS credits	min. 36 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 48 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT) minimum 10 ECTS credits, - Economics Foundation and Social Sciences Foundation (e.g. Micro- and Macroeconomics, International Economics, Regional Economics, Economic History, Sociology, Psychology, Communication) minimum 10 ECTS credits, - Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Corporate Finance, Accounting, Management and Leadership, Human Resources Management) minimum 10 ECTS credits, - Marketing Foundation (e.g. Marketing, Marketing Planning, Marketing Management, Marketing Research, Consumer Behaviour, Marketing Communication, Digital Marketing) minimum 6 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 36 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.

The credit recognition procedure MUST BE COMPLETED for Applicants who have obtained a bachelor degree and professional qualification in a FOREIGN HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTION

A	B	C	D1	E1	E2	F
Study field	Name of the masters programme	You DON'T NEED a credit recognition procedure, if you have a bachelor degree from Hungary from one of these programmes (bachelor programmes that can be counted with FULL CREDIT)	You MUST do the credit recognition procedure	Credits required for entry	Minimum credits required for entry	Subject areas required for entry to the Master's programme
Social sciences	POLITICAL ECONOMY	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•International Business Economics•Applied Economics•Public Services•Economic Analysis•Philosophy, Politics, Economy•Political Science•International Relations	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution•you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C	30 ECTS credits	min. 24 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 30 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Economics Foundation (e.g. Economic Theory, International Economics, World Economics, Finance, History of Economic Theories, Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Integration Theories, EU Policies) 6 ECTS credits,- Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, Econometrics, Impact Analysis, Assessment, IT, Data Analysis) 6 ECTS credits,- Political Science Foundation (e.g. Comparative Politics, Public Policy, Political Systems, EU Political Systems, Theories of Democracy, Power Basis Theory, Governance, Public Administration) 6 ECTS credits,- Political Economy Foundation (e.g. Classical and International Political Economy, Globalisation, Economic Development, Economic Policy, Development Policy) 6 ECTS credits,- Other Social Sciences Foundation (e.g. Philosophy, Economic and Social History, Constitutional Studies, Public Law) 6 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 24 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	PUBLIC GOVERNANCE	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•Applied Economics•Philosophy, Politics, Economy•Business Administration and Management•Business Informatics•Communication and Media Science•International Business Economics•International Relations•Finance and Accounting•Data Science in Business•Public Administration Management•International Public Service Management	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution•you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C	20 ECTS credits	min. 15 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 20 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Methodology, 5 ECTS credits,- Economics Foundation, 5 ECTS credits,- Social Sciences Foundation, 5 ECTS credits,- Programme Specific Foundation (e.g. Public Service Institutions, Economic and Administrative Management of Government Levels, Public Policy, Specialized Policies, Public Law, Social Policies), 5 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 15 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	PUBLIC POLICY AND MANAGEMENT	Applied Economics	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution•you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C	20 ECTS credits	min. 15 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 20 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Methodology, 5 ECTS credits,- Economics Foundation, 5 ECTS credits,- Social Sciences Foundation, 5 ECTS credits,- Programme Specific Foundation (e.g. Public Service Institutions, Economic and Administrative Management of Government Levels, Public Policy, Specialized Policies, Public Law, Social Policies), 5 ECTS credits. To be admitted to the Master's programme, you must have at least 15 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Social sciences	SOCIAL DATA SCIENCE	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•Applied Economics•Business Informatics•Data Science in Business•Physics•Physicist Engineering•Economic Data Analysis•Mathematics•Computer Science Engineering•Computer Science•Computer Science Operational Engineering•Electrical Engineering	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution•you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C	36 ECTS credits	min. 30 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 36 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Methodology (including courses in applied methods: Analysis, Linear Algebra, Matrix Algebra, Probability, Statistics): 12 ECTS credits (cannot be acquired through catch up courses),- Programming skills (knowledge of any programming language, in particular Python or R): 12 ECTS credits (cannot be acquired through catch up courses)- Knowledge of economics or social sciences (Economics, Sociology, Political Science): 12 ECTS credits (6 ECTS credits of which can be acquired through catch up courses) To be admitted to the Master's programme, applicants must have 30 ECTS credits in the listed subject areas. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	STRATEGIC PROJECT MANAGEMENT	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•Applied Economics•Business Administration and Management•Business Informatics•Communication and Media Science•International Business Economics•Data Science in Business	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution•you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C	20 ECTS credits	min. 15 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 20 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, IT), and- Economics Foundation (e.g. Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theories, Business Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Public Economics), and- Social Sciences Foundation (e.g. EU Studies, General and Business Law, Economic History, Sociology, Psychology). A total of 5 ECTS credits from the above three areas combined (can be acquired through catch up courses), - Business Foundation (e.g. Business Economics, Business Law, Marketing, Management and Leadership, Decision Making Skills and Methodology, Business Ethics, Strategic Planning, Finance, Accounting, Controlling) 15 ECTS credits (maximum 5 ECTS credits can be acquired through catch up courses). 3 ECTS credits in Business Foundation must be related to a project or Project Management subject, which cannot be acquired through catch up courses. For admission to the Master's programme, the applicant must have 15 ECTS credits of the listed subjects from his/her previous studies from which 10 ECTS credits must be related to Business Foundation subjects. Out of these 10 ECTS credits minimum 3 ECTS credits have to be related to Project Management subjects. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.
Economics	SUSTAINABILITY MANAGEMENT AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•Applied Economics•Human Resources•Business Administration and Management•Business Informatics•Agrobusiness and Rural Development Engineering•Commerce and Marketing•International Business Economics•Finance and Accounting•Tourism and Catering•Data Science in Business	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•you have a bachelor degree from a foreign higher education institution•you have a bachelor degree from Hungary but not from a program from column C	24 ECTS credits	min. 18 ECTS credits	The minimum number of credits required for admission to the Master's programme is 24 ECTS credits, acquired during previous studies or work experience acquired through previous study or equivalent non-formal, informal learning in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Methodology (e.g. Mathematics, Statistics, Informatics), minimum 3 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses),- Economics (e.g. Micro- and Macroeconomics, International Economics, Environmental Economics, Economic Theory, Economic Statistics, History of Economic Theory, Economic Modelling, Economic Policy, Sectoral and Functional Economics, Community Economics), minimum 3 ECTS credits (can be acquired through catch up courses),- Business and Mandatory Professional Basic knowledge (e.g. Business Economics, Economic Law, Marketing, Management and Organisation, Decision Theory and Methodology, Business Ethics, Strategic Planning, Finance, Accounting, Controlling), minimum 12 ECTS credits (max. 6 ECTS credits can be acquired through catch up courses). To be admitted to the Master's programme, the applicant must have 18 ECTS credits of the listed subjects from his/her previous studies and the minimum requirements of at least two of the three areas' (Methodology or Economics, or Business and Mandatory Professional Basic knowledge) need to be fulfilled. The missing credits must be acquired in accordance with the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.

^[1] The admission to the Master's degree in Business Informatics requires that the 60 credits in the fields listed in the credit recognition table must be acquired in parallel with the Master's degree within two semesters of admission, as defined in the study and exam regulations of the higher education institution.

Programmes in column C are bachelor programmes in Hungary from government decree 289/2005. (XII. 22.), government decree 139/2015. (VI. 9.), and Ministry of Innovation and Technology decree 65/2021. (XII. 29.).

The credit recognition procedure MUST BE COMPLETED for Applicants who have obtained a bachelor degree and professional qualification in a FOREIGN HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTION

Applicants who received an ECONOMIST DEGREE based on Act LXXX of 1993. évi LXXX. Or government decree 4/1996. (I.18.) MUST DO THE CREDIT ACCEPTANCE PROCEDURE.