

Climate Policy and Regional Development Master's Programme (English, full-time) - Oral Admission Exam Requirements for the 2026A Central Admission Procedure

Name of the Master's Programme	Climate Policy and Regional Development
Type of Exam	Oral
Name of the Exam	Admission Interview for the Climate Policy and Regional Development Master's Programme
Duration of the Exam	15-20 minutes
Mode of the Exam	online
Short Description of the Exam	1. Introduction (personal academic and professional background) 2. Motivation (reasons for applying to the programme, career objectives, commitment to sustainability issues) 3. Professional competence (questions on climate/regional issues - knowledge and personal opinion) Throughout the interview we assess whether the applicant ... • possesses the attitudes necessary to study and work in the field of the programme: a readiness to simultaneously consider and connect environmental, economic and social aspects, analytical thinking, openness to different views • has some basic knowledge about the field; • is able to form an opinion and support it with coherent arguments • gives thoughtful, competent answers to the interview questions; • has the necessary language skills to freely communicate and pursue higher studies in English
Tools Allowed During the Exam	none
Recommended Literature	IPCC 6th assessment report - synthesis report
Exam Topics	issues related to climate change (drivers and impacts, mitigation and adaptation possibilities and challenges) regional issues (regional differences and development challenges and their connection to climate issues)
Sample Questions / Example Tasks	What are the main impacts of climate change in your country and what is being done to address them? Describe the main regional (economic) differences within your country.