Programme Structure and Requirements

The University reserves the right to change the Programme's structure and conditions before the end of the admission period.

Academic Year 2025/2026

Application deadline: 3 July 2026

The complex Preparatory Programme of Corvinus University of Budapest (PPCUB) prepares participants, potential future students of Corvinus University for admission to the different programmes offered by the university. PPCUB provides intensive English language training and Hungarian language classes, as well as specialized professional preparation according to the BA or MA study choice and other supplementary services, like tutoring, mentoring and counselling. We ensure a culturally and socially beneficial study period in Hungary.

Please consider that Corvinus University is a higher education institution with high international prestige and accordingly high admission scores for its most popular study programmes e.g., in Economics, Business, Communication and Media Studies, and International Relations. Therefore, only very good secondary school results can make the application for BA study programmes realistic. For admission to BA programmes minimum strong Intermediate level English is required, which is European B2 level or IELTS 6.0. It should be proved by the result of the B2 complex Internal Exam at the end of the spring semester, or by another accredited exam certificate (e.g., IELTS, TOEFL, Duolingo).

The programme is tailored to the specific needs of the participants and prepares them for the admission requirements. The completion of the Preparatory Programme highly contributes to the knowledge and skills of the participant that satisfy the admission requirements, but does not replace the official application procedure, and the admission is competitive. Participants can justify their English language knowledge when applying to BA or MA programmes in form of the Internal Exam – only when applying for programmes at Corvinus – which takes place at the end of the spring semester, or by another accredited exam certificate (e.g., IELTS, Duolingo, BME). The minimum language requirement for Corvinus is strong B2 level or IELTS General 6.0, while for MA or MSc majors the required level may be even higher.

Applicants for BA studies in Business and Economics write an online Mathematics entry test, and all MA or MSc applicants as well as those applying for BA majors in Social Sciences should participate in interviews.

As you see in the table below, besides the intensive English Language preparation we offer specialized professional preparation in Mathematics, Economic English, Preparation for International Economy and Business MA or Basics of Social Sciences to prepare students for the admission requirements.
