Spring semester: November 5

Academic and Further Useful Information

Available Courses

Detailed course information can be found at the following link:

Corvinus Exchange Student — Corvinus University of Budapest
CEMS Exchange Students

CEMS Exch Students are required to register for courses through the official Hungarian higher education system, known as Neptun. Login credentials and detailed instructions will be provided to students via email prior to the registration period.

Please note that course registration operates on a first-come, first-served basis. Therefore, students are advised to complete the registration process as early as possible once access is granted.

Academic Calendar

A detailed academic calendar is available at:

Guest Student Schedule 2026-2027

One semester consists of 14 academic weeks, plus the exam period.

Fall semester: September – December/January (including exams)

Spring semester: February – May/June (including exams)

Orientation: Welcome Week is held at the beginning of each semester to support new students with orientation, academic guidance, and integration activities, please visit: For Freshmen - Corvinus University of Budapest

Living in Hungary

Living in Hungary

The Cost of Living Calculator can assist with financial planning during the stay in Hungary. It includes common expenses to help with initial preparation:

Cost of Living Calculator

Health Insurance

Students are advised to secure suitable health insurance in their home country prior to arriving in Hungary. Those with chronic illnesses should verify that their coverage adequately addresses their medical needs, and students requiring regular medication must ensure continued access during their stay. Further information is available on the visa and medical insurance page.

Disability Assistance

Students with disabilities are kindly encouraged to communicate their support needs by the nomination deadline set by Corvinus University, by contacting disability@uni-corvinus.hu. This allows sufficient time to arrange appropriate accommodations; late requests may affect the availability of support. All disability-related documents should be uploaded during the application process via the online platform shared with the sending institution and will be reviewed in cooperation with mobility coordinators. Disability support can only be guaranteed if confirmed prior to the start of the academic semester. For more information, please refer to: Studying without barriers - Corvinus University of Budapest

Accommodation

Corvinus University of Budapest offers a limited number of on-campus dormitory places across four student residences. In addition, selected dormitory-style accommodations, reviewed by university staff, are available at similar price levels and listed on the official accommodation page. Information about these options, as well as guidance on arranging private accommodation, will be sent to incoming students after the preliminary course registration period and well before arrival.

Visa Requirements for Non-EU/EEA Students

Non-EU/EEA citizens are advised to consult the website of the relevant Hungarian Consulate or Embassy for specific visa application requirements before scheduling an appointment. Additional information can be found at the Hungarian Embassies Abroad page and the general Consular Information website.

5 reasons to choose Corvinus

1

International recognition

Corvinus is AMBA and AACSB accredited. We are amongst the world's top 2% of business schools, with several of our programs ranked favourably by QS, the Financial Times, and Eduniversal.

2

Central City Campus Location

Corvinus is right on the banks of the Danube river, offering the best of both worlds: a stunning historic building as well as newly built, state-of-the-art facilities nearby.

3

Budapest, one of the best student cities in Europe

Budapest has been recognized as one of Europe's best student cities, securing 4th place in The Campus Advisor's 2024-25 ranking. The ranking, determined by student reviews, highlights Budapest's strong performance in areas like affordability, student-friendliness, academic environment, and safety.

4

Close cooperation with companies

Corvinus University of Budapest maintains strategic partnerships with numerous major companies. These collaborations focus on joint research, guest lectures, mentoring programs, and integrating practical business insights into the curriculum.

5

Focus on Sustainability

Corvinus has placed strong emphasis in recent years on embedding sustainability principles in both education and research and Received International Sustainability Recognition: the PRME (The Principles for Responsible Management Education)
